JUDGE EDWARD RODGERS CHAMPION OF FREEDOM AWARD

The Palm Beach County Bar Association's Committee for Diversity and Inclusion will present the Judge Edward Rodgers Champion of Freedom Award at the annual Bench Bar Conference. The recipient should be a Palm Beach County Bar Association member or an organization which:

1. Consistently exhibits a spirit of commitment to fairness in the development, recruitment, retention, and promotion of all people who are members of, or who are seeking to enter, the legal profession.
2. Cultivates and promotes initiatives to preserve freedom and opportunity for all within the legal community.
3. Defends and promotes freedom to facilitate education, community outreach, and social engagement with and between people of all ethnic or religious backgrounds, gender, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, and/or physical and mental capabilities so that all individuals can enter and prosper in the legal field.
4. Exhibits brave, courageous, visionary and/or insightful leadership to confront and oppose discrimination, exclusion, and inequity, and to resolve injustices through strategic collaboration, sharing of resources and ideas, and establishment of priorities that enhance freedom and opportunity for all.
5. Actively pursues goals, action steps, and initiatives to ensure freedom and fair access to opportunity at all levels of the legal profession and community at large.
6. Is passionate about advancing equal access to, and knowledge of, the legal system and a free and fair Constitutional democracy.
7. Has implemented and demonstrated best practices that support freedom and opportunity within the legal community.

*Individual Members of the Board of Directors and the Committee for Diversity & Inclusion are ineligible for this award.

*Although the committee acknowledges, supports, and appreciates the work of organizations whose main objective is to promote diversity, such organizations are ineligible for this award.

*The person and/or organization must be in Palm Beach County, and the criteria above must have been achieved in Palm Beach County.
