

Working Together to Maximize Benefits of ADR For Clients

ADR Morning Session 2 - 10:00-11:15am

Location: TBD

This 1 hour and 15 minute session is an interactive panel discussion designed to assist practitioners in the effective use of alternative dispute resolution.

Moderator: Circuit Judge Lucy Chernow Brown (Ret.)

Panelists: Circuit Judge Kenneth D. Stern (Ret.); Theodore A. Deckert, Esq.; Michael D. Mopsick, Esq.; W. Jay Hunston, Jr., Esq. and Amber E.B. McMichael, Esq.

Session Coordinators: Retired Judges Lucy Chernow Brown and Kenneth D. Stern

- A. Timing mediation to maximize results for different types of cases (12 min)
 - a. Pre-suit?
 - b. Most effective time during litigation process?
 - c. On the eve of trial?
- B. Preparing your Client to maximize the opportunity for settlement (12 min)
- C. How to utilize the joint session and opening statement most effectively in different types of cases and in light of client and attorney personalities and other issues of context (12 min)
- D. Ethical practice of evaluative mediation vs. Facilitative mediation (12 min)
- E. Issues of professionalism in the ADR context (12 min)
- F. Current Trends in ADR/ Q and A (15 min)